

TWO DAY MEET & GREET | OUR DUTY OF SAVING LIVES

Presented by World Council of the National Assembly of Churches, Inc.
Hosted by DMECS*-School of Community Development Studies

*Daniel Matthew Ecclesiastical College

March 19th & 20th of 2021

WCNAC MAIN CHURCH | 5010 Terry Avenue,
St. Louis, Missouri 63115 (800) 451-9890 Ex. 889 or 887

Mar. 19th & 20th, 2021 8:00 - 9:00am-
Breakfast Workshops 1pm, 3pm & 7pm

Register at*:

www.wcnac.org

Donations are welcome at any time at www.wcnac.org

*Due to social distancing standards; we are limiting each workshop to twenty registrants for each offered. Each workshop registration is $25.00/ Breakfast is free. You must have pre-registered.

The meet and greet starts out with an informative & inspirational session with Ministry leaders, Ecclesiastical College Officials and WCNAC'S National Prelate together with other community officials/leaders, to address our community issues, targeted at adapting unified policies to meet the changing needs of crime prevention within the communities.

ONLINE ONLY

Other sessions will be taught by a team of activists, which includes Brother Tyrone Robinson, Dean of Community Development School:

1. Concrete and proven community relation methods @ 1p.m.
2. Creative, out-of-the-box public relations Techniques-Crime @ 3 p.m.
3. Social media best practices to engage vigilante actions by online audiences @ 7p.m.

“OUR DUTY OF SAVING LIVES, ONE PERSON AT A TIMES”

Includes snacks for all workshop, sponsored by World Council of the National Assembly of Churches (WCNAC).

Questions? Email mg@wcnac.org.

FOR ALL THOSE INTERESTED IN COMMUNITY REFORM

